

Second Quarter 2024

PUB AUX

Photo Contest

News

MARK DAVIS, POWELL (WYOMING) TRIBUNE

BLM Fire: A Bureau of Land Management fire crew member watches for sparks jumping the boundaries of Pond 6 on Tuesday at Yellowtail Wildlife Management Area near Lovell. More than two dozen BLM crew members and Wyoming Game and Fish Department habitat biologists executed a controlled burn on the 75-acre pond to rid it of cattails.

SOPHIA BALES, RICHMOND (MISSOURI) NEWS

KENT TEMPLETON (from left), David Minnick, Joan and Stan Utley listen to federal, state and Missouri Department of Transportation representatives. The discussion focused on funding options for state Highway A. (Feb. 9, 2024)

JON FLATLAND, TIMBER LAKE (SOUTH DAKOTA) TOPIC

Emergency Medical Technicians remove the body of a 25-year-old Edén One Feather from House 449 on D Street in Timber Lake last Friday, April 14. One Feather's body was discovered after law enforcement was dispatched to the residence for an unresponsive female. The names of two individuals taken into custody for questioning have not been released and neither person has been charged with any crime. (Date of publication: April 20, 2023)

KEN ESTEN COOKE, FREDERICKSBURG (TEXAS) STANDARD-RADIO POST

Friday night events at the Stonewall Peach JAMBoree were delayed slightly by an electrical storm. Fredericksburg received more than an inch of rain Friday evening, but Stonewall stayed dry and activities resumed after lightning delays. (Date of publication: June 21, 2023)

EILEEN WISNIOWICZ, WASHINGTON (MISSOURI) MISSOURIAN

BLOWN AWAY — City employee Darrin Hellmann blows snow off of a downtown sidewalk on Tuesday, Jan. 16, 2024 in Washington. Hellmann was clearing sidewalks following Monday night's snow. (Date of publication: Jan. 17, 2024)

BILL BATTLE, WASHINGTON (MISSOURI) MISSOURIAN

CELEBRATING DISTRICT TITLE — Borgia Head Coach Dale Gildehaus speaks to the crowd after the Knights won the Class 3 District 2 championship last Friday, Nov. 10, at Borgia. It was Gildehaus' 295th career win. Borgia travels to Park Hills Central Saturday to play in a quarterfinal at 1 p.m. (Date of publication: Nov. 18-19, 2023, weekend edition)

LORI SORENSON, ROCK COUNTY STAR HERALD, LUVERNE, MINNESOTA

“The morning sun peeks between sundogs over a bank of clouds across a heavy blanket of snow Tuesday after two days of a winter storm that dumped nearly a foot of snow in Rock County and the tri-state area. Wind expected later this week will create visibility issues.”
(Date of Publication: Jan. 11, 2024)

JACOB KESSLER, THE VILLAGE REPORTER, MONTEPELIER, OHIO

EAVESDROP — Miss Scarlet (Emma Schlade), Mr. Green (Jaden Kaulen), Mrs. Peacock (Teagan Grimes), and Professor Plum (Brenton Wheeler) try to listen in on the conversation taking place on the other side of the door. Colonel Mustard (Ryan Spies) also tries to listen in, albeit less successfully. (Date of publication: November 2023)

AMY MENEREY, NEWS LETTER JOURNAL, NEWCASTLE, WYOMING

ROAD RAGE — Recent snowfall is fast melting, and sunny, warm temperatures mean spring is finally in the air. At first glance they may look as though they are embracing, but these gobblers were actually battling for the love of another on a sunny afternoon as they strut their stuff for females of the flock, causing a slight traffic jam in Custer Highlands on Monday. (Date of publication: April 13, 2023)

WALTER SPRAGUE, NEWS LETTER JOURNAL, NEWCASTLE, WYOMING

WARDING OFF EVIL — Harvey Spoonhunter performs a dance in an elaborate feathered costume at the Crouch Auditorium on Thursday, Sept. 14. This traditional Northern Arapaho dance is used to ward off evil spirits. Spoonhunter was among a group of Wind River Dancers, brought to Newcastle by the Weston County Museum District. (Date of publication: Sept. 21, 2023)

SOPHIA BALES, RICHMOND (MISSOURI) NEWS

SIMEON DURHAM (left) plays Mufasa lying on the floor and Elijah Durham plays young Simba mourning the loss of his father. (Date of publication: Oct. 6, 2023)

MARK DAVIS, POWELL (WYOMING) TRIBUNE

Children sing along with the national anthem prior to the Panther boys' game against Lovell on Thursday, Nov. 22 at Powell High School. The school sponsors several activities for children attending the game, including shooting baskets at halftime.

CARY BURGESS, FREDERICKSBURG (TEXAS) STANDARD-RADIO POST

Above, Eliza Vogel (left) and Olivia Gold dance the night away at the final Dance Hall Night of 2023 at Adelsverein Halle Saturday night. (Date of publication: Nov. 15, 2023)

EILEEN WISNIOWICZ, WASHINGTON (MISSOURI) MISSOURIAN

DANCIN' SOLO — Izzy Helms performs in a solo dance on Sunday at St. Francis Borgia High School in Washington. Helms danced to the song "Power" at the annual Starry Knights Dance Extravaganza. (Date of publication: Feb. 7, 2024)

KATE REICHL, THE LAKELAND TIMES, MINOCQUA, WISCONSIN

TAKING A CHILL SPILL — Bikini racer Peg Stover takes a curve a little too fast during the second annual Breast Race of Your Life event on Saturday, Feb. 3, in St. Germain. The event raised over $86,000 for the Pink Ribbon Riders, St. Germain Fire Department and Plum Lake Ambulance. (Date of publication: February 13, 2024)

BILL BATTLE, WASHINGTON (MISSOURI) MISSOURIAN

SLAM TIME BORGIA — Senior Adam Rickman throws down a dunk during the second half of the Knights' 71-49 win over rival St. Dominic Friday. Rickman was called for a technical foul for hanging on the rim. (Date of publication: Feb. 7, 2024)

ARRON HUSTEAD, WASHINGTON (MISSOURI) MISSOURIAN

FLYING TO VICTORY — Washington senior shortstop Lacy Monzyk comes down on Parkway West baserunner Siena Snyder for the out on this stolen base attempt in the first inning of Thursday's Class 4 softball semifinals in Springfield. Washington won, 16-1, advancing to play Helias Friday for the state title. (Date of publication: Oct. 28-29, 2023, Weekend edition)

JACOB KESSLER, THE VILLAGE REPORTER, MONTEPELIER, OHIO

MAXIMUM EFFORT — Evergreen goalie Alex Mossing flies thru the air to try and stop an Archbold goal. View 100 photos of this contest for free at www.thevillagereporter.com (Date of publication: October 4, 2023)

WALTER SPRAGUE, NEWS LETTER JOURNAL, NEWCASTLE, WYOMING

ROUGH RIDER — In what has become one of the most popular events, the fourth annual Weston County Mini Roughstock Rodeo was held on Tuesday, July 25, during the Weston County Fair. The rodeo features various events for youth from age 4 to high school. While many contestants have plenty of experience riding bareback or bull riding — just two of the eight events held — some use the event to try their hand at something new. Above, bareback rider Payton Gaskins of Broadus, Montana, loses his hat but hangs on tight. He won the high school division in the event. (Date of publication: Aug. 3, 2023)

WALTER SPRAGUE, NEWS LETTER JOURNAL, NEWCASTLE, WYOMING

CJ HARDY — Newcastle High School junior CJ Hardy leaps over Braxton Von Eye in the dunk contest at the Meet the Dogies scrimmage as his team cheers him on. (Date of publication: Dec. 7, 2023)

SOPHIA BALES, RICHMOND (MISSOURI) NEWS

HARDIN-CENTRAL SENIOR Drew Hawkins looks to get across midcourt, and get past Orrick junior Logan Smith, Jan. 26 at Orrick High School. Led by 17 points from Kameron Pugh, and 10 points apiece from Hawkins and Caleb Gant, Hardin-Central wins 58-54 (Date of publication: Feb. 2, 2024)

MARK DAVIS, POWELL (WYOMING) TRIBUNE

Brock Johnson dunks in the first half to help ignite the Panthers against Lovell on senior night. Johnson led the Panthers with 16 points to cap off a perfect home season campaign.

CASEY KRAUTKRAMER, THE RECORD REVIEW, ABBOTSFORD, WISCONSIN

COKER TWINS' BIGGEST FAN — Porter Hamann, 3, of Hamburg, shows his support for his babysitters, Athens senior girls basketball twin sisters Sophia and Sydney Coker, during Thursday's WIAA Division 5 sectional semifinal at Merrill Senior High School. The Athens girls lost, 45-37, to Pittsville. Porter's father, Tyler Hamann, is to his right. Athens athletic director Guyler Luther is also pictured. (Date of publication: March 6, 2024)

KEN ESTEN COOKE, FREDERICKSBURG (TEXAS) STANDARD-RADIO POST

Lucky No. 7 “Max in Heavenly,” ridden by Victor Manuel Urieta Jr., placed first in the 350-yard third race on Saturday at Gillespie Downs. The day of racing marked the third of four race meets, which will culminate the weekend of the Gillespie County Fair. Placing second was “Mp Sheza Yes,” ridden by Claudio Ponce Aguilar, and placing third was “Darling Secret” (4), whose jockey was Luis L. Vivanco. For full results, see page B5. (Date of publication: Aug. 16, 2023)